^[1] edacentrum at the Exhibition Theatre and the University Booth

Beside from the very successful scientific conference the DATE established two important meeting parts in the the exhibition: the Exhibition Theatre and the University Booth. As a part of its mission to support industry and science in the area of EDA the edacentrum organized these two meeting components. Since both programs are aligned to the industrial practice and the dialogue between industry and science, we would like to invite you to visit these meetings. Please find below more information about panels, testimonials, presentations and demonstrations.

The edacentrum also presents a testimonial event at the Exhibition Theatre:
